- Issues related to livelihood, health, housing, education, criminality, disasters and the like.
- The context of political economy, affecting the local, community, national and international level government and non-government systems.
- Implications of the above for social work/development philosophy, policies, methods of intervention, education and associations.

The Journal Invites

- Theoretical/historical/empirical/methodological/epistemological analyses.
- Reviews of policies / programmes / legislation / voluntary organisations / professional interventions.
- Curriculum development / Teaching aids.
- Research summaries.
- News from professional associations in social work.
- Book reviews and audio-visual reviews.
- Discussions and notes
