

Vacancy for social worker for Special Cell for Women and Children in Dhule & Nashik, Maharashtra

Special Cell for Women & Children is a grants-in-aid programme of government of Maharashtra, Dept. of Home and Women & Children. The Cell works with the women facing violence and is located within police stations across Maharashtra.

The candidate must have a Masters degree in Social Work from a recognised university and an inclination to work with women facing violence and should be fluent in Marathi & English.

Freshers may apply but experience in the field would be added advantage. The present position is in Dhule & Nashik. Candidates based in Dhule and Nashik would be given preference.

The interested candidates can send their resume on Specialcellco@gmail.com or by speed post to Ms. Trupti Panchal, Special cell for women & children C/o. Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Sion Trombay Raod, Deonar, Mumbai – 400 088.

The last date to receive applications : - 30 March 2017.