

December 01, 2020

Advertisement for Research Staff for Project on Narratives Landscapes of Covid-19 – Storied Experiences of Older Adults in India

The School of Human Ecology at the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai is carrying out a project on the experiences of Covid-19 for older adults in India. The following vacancies are there:

Post	Job Description	Qualifications
Research Assistants (2 full time positions for 6 months)	Will work under the supervision of the Primary Investigator/s. Will be responsible for data collection, data entry and analysis.	MA Psychology/Social Sciences or any post-graduate degree with experience in qualitative data collection and management. Should have expertise in in-depth interviewing and qualitative data analysis. Preference will be given to candidates with exposure to narrative analysis

The project period is for six months. Candidates will not be required to travel.

Salary for Research Assistants: INR 20,000/- per month

The project begins from January, 2021.

Interested candidates may apply with their CV and a 500-word write-up on the challenges faced by the elderly in navigating Covid-19 in India. There will be a Zoom interview for selection of candidates, in the week beginning 14th December, 2020.

Last date for receipt of applications: 11th December, 2020

Applications may be sent by email to: narrativelandscapes1@gmail.com

For enquiries call: +919820761580; +919711057003

Project Leaders
Sujata Sriram &
Swarnima Bhargava