

Date: 8th February 2022

Advertisement for Research Officer

Centre for Science, Technology & Society, School of Habitat Studies
Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai

The Centre for Science, Technology & Society of Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, is looking for one research officer for the forest-based livelihood promotion project in the Chandrapur District of Maharashtra.

Responsibility

The research officer will be required to undertake the following activities: conduct fieldwork independently between 20-25 villages, document the social, livelihood, institutional, resource and basic amenities dataset, analyse the implementation status of FRA and facilitate the preparation of community forest resource management plan for the villages to avail the livelihood and rural development schemes of the district administration, coordinate with the district administration, ITDP Officer, ZP Office and line department office to execute the above work.

Duration and Remuneration

The duration for the position is 10 months from 1st March -31st December 2022
Total Remuneration: Rs. 35,000 (Consolidated)

Location: Chandrapur District, Maharashtra

Eligibility

Masters in social sciences and law
Rural fieldwork experience and knowledge on forest rights and governance in Maharashtra
Fluent in Marathi and English

Last Date of Application: 21st February 2022

The application must include a detailed description of past rural fieldwork experience and knowledge on forest rights and governance in Maharashtra. Email your application to tissrrrg@gmail.com. Only the shortlisted candidates will be called for an online interview on 23rd February 2021.

Project Leader