About iCALL Psychosocial Helpline:

iCALL Psychosocial Helpline, a field action project of the School of Human Ecology at the Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, provides counselling, support, information and referral to individuals in emotional and psychological distress, over the telephone, email and chat. The helpline currently runs six days a week, from Monday to Saturday, from 8 AM to 10 PM. Apart from service provision, iCALL engages in various research, capacity building and outreach efforts independently and in partnership with State Governments and NGOs across the country.

iCALL in partnership with United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) is engaged in a capacity building initiative to help the Government of Madhya Pradesh in strengthening the integrated counselling centres in all of its 51 districts since 2016. This is a research based intervention project that has developed an innovative e-learning platform- Samvad e-Learning platform- to build capacities of counsellors spread across the entire state of Madhya Pradesh. The project involves conducting a research study to understand the training needs of counsellors, writing reports, developing training modules and training the counsellors through online formats and contact classes and assessing the impact of the training. iCALL is inviting applications for the post of 'Research Assistants' for this project.
