

The International Relations Office (IRO), TISS is glad to organise a unique workshop in collaboration with University of Chicago to decode the fundamentals of Public Policy. Through group activities and interactive sessions, the workshop will help participants understand

What is Public Policy?
How does it impact you?
How does it translate into a viable profession?
What are its opportunities in India and globally?
Is it for you?

Kindly Register

<https://www.facebook.com/InternationalRelationsOffice.TISS>

What is

Public Policy

How does it impact you? Can it be a viable profession?
What are its opportunities in India and globally?
How does it engage with data? Is it for you?

Workshop by the University of Chicago

Date : November 24, 2017
Time : 4 PM to 6 PM
Venue: Tata Institute of Social Sciences
6th Floor, Library Conference Hall

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

About the speaker: Cheistha Kochhar currently serves as the Advisor of Strategic Initiatives at the University of Chicago in India. Prior to this, she has worked with the Government of India for several years at offices including that of the Chief Minister of Delhi, Minister of Defence, Minister for Human Resource Development and the Prime Minister of India.

