

Prof. Rajni Kothari (August 16, 1928 - January 19, 2015) was a celebrated political scientist, academic activist, author of 'Politics in India,' and founder of New Delhi based Centre for the Study of Developing Societies (CSDS) and Lokayan. Rajni Kothari, scholar extraordinaire, preeminent political theorist and a visionary beyond compare, single-handedly revolutionized the study of politics in India. His intellectual prowess and unwavering activism gave the country lasting institutions and ideals which have inspired and continue to inspire countless generations of students and academicians.

The Prof. Rajni Kothari Lecture Series is anchored at the Center for Public Policy, Habitat and Human Development, and is conceptualized and curated by Prof. Ashwani Kumar, School of Development Studies, Tata Institute of Social Sciences (Mumbai). The lecture series includes a set of interactive panel discussions and talks with some of the most distinguished thinkers and scholars in India and abroad.

Advisory board for the lecture series includes Prof. Ritabhara Hebbar, Dean, School of Development Studies, TISS.

Conveners: Souradeep Banerjee, Shashwat Dhar, Ravindra Singh Pooniya, and Srishtee Sethi.

Rajni Kothari Lecture Series

Accounts & Accountability in India

Yamini Aiyar,
President & Chief Executive, Centre for Policy Research
September 22, 2020

Why the Poor Vote for Elite Parties

Tariq Thachil
Associate Professor, Vanderbilt University, USA
July 16, 2019

Rethinking Rajni Kothari

Ashis Nandy,
Eminent Social Theorist and Public Intellectual
December 14, 2018

Experiencing Manto

Nandita Das, Rasika Duggal and Danish Hussain
August 27, 2018

Is India a Majoritarian Democracy?

Suhas Palshikhar,
Co-Director, Lokniti-CSDS & Chief Editor, Studies in
Indian Politics
February 8, 2017

Middle Class and Indian Democracy

Shiv Visvanathan,
Eminent Sociologist
January 25, 2017

India's Democracy: Paradoxes for Reflection

Ashutosh Varshney
Sol Goldman Professor of International Studies,
Brown University, USA
December 20, 2016

The Decline of the Congress System, Rise of a BJP-Dominant System?

Pradeep Chhibber,
Director, Institute of International Studies,
University of California, Berkeley, USA
December 14, 2016

India's Foreign Policy: a Paradigmatic Shift?

Ambassador Neelam Deo,
Director, Gateway House
November 30, 2016