Vacancy for position of 01 female Social Worker at pilot Special Cell for Women, Budgam district, Union Territory (UT) of Jammu & Kashmir, established with/in J&K Police, by Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, with support of National Commission for Women (Government of India)

National Commission for Women (NCW), Government of India has undertaken collaborative work with Tata Institute of Social Sciences (Mumbai) for demonstration of pilot units of Special Cell for Women under 'Violence Free Home – A Woman's Right' project. This is based on Special Cell for Women and Children approach.

The Special Cells for Women & Children approach – as initiated by Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS), Mumbai in 1984, creates space in the Police system for violated women to receive support through quality psycho-social- legal services provided by professional full-time social workers, within the criminal justice system, with a clear understanding that violence against women is a crime and it is the responsibility of the State to prevent and counter the same. The Resource Centre for Interventions on Violence Against Women (RCI-VAW), School of Social Work (TISS, Mumbai), has collaborated with NCW and Administration of UT of Jammu & Kashmir for the demonstration of 10 pilot Special Cell for Women in UT of Jammu & Kashmir.
